THE SOLDIERS POINT MARINA NEWSLETTER

Darrell Barnett with the Award and the ever smiling Marina Supervisor Jim Duncan

Another Excellent Award

Soldiers Point Marina has been awarded a coveted Award of Excellence at this year's marina awards ceremony conducted by the Marina Industries Association of Australia. This prestigious award is another gauge that Soldiers Point Marina continues to be one of the most highly regarded marinas in the country. On receiving the award, Darrell Barnett CMM paid tribute to his loyal and dedicated staff for their tireless efforts, particularly in regard to customer service.

Supporting Our Local Youth

Soldiers Point Marina is very excited and proud to be the major sponsor of the Real Futures Program, conducted at Tomaree High School and St Philips Christian College, for the next three years.

The Program's focus is on assisting young people transit from school to the workplace and integral to the Program is a pledge by Year 10 students to either continue in full time education, training or employment by March 2010. Through the Real Futures Program, students are provided with assistance to ensure their individual needs are met and that they set realistic goals for their future. Strategies such as industry workshops, Ready for Work Programs, Work Placement and Work Experience enable students to experience as much "hands on" activity with employers as possible so that they gain understanding and knowledge of the work place that is real, relevant and up to date.

SPMC Manager Gains International Status

During the recent Marinas 2009 Conference on the Gold Coast, Clive Howes, Service Manager of the Soldiers Point Marine Centre, became the first of only two in Australia (and only eleven world wide) to be awarded status as a Certified Marine Service Manager (CMSM). The internationally-recognised career award formalises an individual's status as a professional service manager and signifies a commitment to providing consistent, high quality and thoughtful marine service. "Certification as a Marine Service Manager is the only credential of its kind in our industry, and being one of the very first in this country to be accredited is a great honour", a proud Clive said.

Romance in the Air

"A" Arm at Soldiers Point Marina was the chosen site for the April wedding of Melbourne couple, Andrew and Kristy Smith. Andrew and Kristy, who have been visiting the area for many years, chose the setting for its gorgeous location and the many happy memories of leisurely days spent at the marina. Although rain threatened during the day, the late afternoon produced a stunning sunset providing the perfect romantic backdrop for the ceremony which was followed by a delectable dinner reception at The Point Restaurant.

Well known couple Nick and Lisa from The Deck Café/Waterfront Bar restaurant announced their engagement at Christmas with Nick popping the question on bended knee in front of all the family. The big day is planned for October this year with the celebrations naturally held at The Deck. A big congratulations to them both and their family and we all wish them the very best for the future.

Energy Saving Tips for Boaties

Whether you are plugged into the mains at a marina or running your engine to charge the boat battery at sea, your boat will be using energy, costing you money and producing emissions, such as carbon dioxide (CO₂), that effect the environment.

There are a number of things you can do to reduce this impact without having to change much at all.

Use natural light and wrap up warm!

The temptation when down below is to turn on all the lights even if they are not really necessary. Make sure you keep you windows and hatches clean and free of salty residue to make the most of the light that does come in through them during the day. If you need a light then use one and make sure it is turned off afterwards. This will help towards saving precious battery power and in turn the fuel bills.

Wrap up warm and try to refrain from turning on the boats heating (if it has some). When on board the boat try and prevent getting cold in the first place by wearing suitable clothes and having enough extra layers to put on if it gets chilly. Check over the boat for drafts coming in through hatches or windows and fix any old or worn out seals to keep warmth in a nd water and cold drafts out.

Tips Out on Deck

- A running hose pipe uses 540 litres of water an hour. When washing down boats, sails or equipment gather everything you need to wash together before the tap goes on and remember to turn the tap off when you have finished.
- Trigger nozzles on hoses in marinas, sailing clubs and your gardens can save water by using it only when needed. This can save up to 225 litres a week.
- We're more likely to notice leaky taps indoors, but don't forget to check outdoor taps, pipes and hoses for leaks at your sailing club or marina.
- When washing down your boat or filling your water tank, try not to leave the hose pipe on pouring water over the side. An easy alternative is to fill buckets for the cleaning and scrubbing instead.

New Boat Licensing Laws

People applying for a power boat licence in NSW must now show they have practical 'on-water' boating experience under new licence regulations which came into force in June this year. Anyone wanting a licence will have to complete a Boating Licence Practical Logbook or attend a registered training provider course. This practical component is in addition to the compulsory boating safety education course.

Obtaining a General Boat Licence now involves three steps: the new practical component, completing the Boating Safety Course, either on-line, by CD or at a training course and a theory test which can be undertaken at a NSW Maritime office.

An Invitation for all Boat Owners to Enjoy Fun & Music on the Water

Following on from the success of last year's Music on the Water, more rousing afternoons of great music are planned through the summer with the combined local marinas providing bands positioned on large boats at popular anchorages in Port Stephens. It's a great opportunity for boat owners and their guests to gather with friends and enjoy an extremely pleasant afternoon of entertainment. With giveaways such as bottled water, ice creams and sun visors available, and the Holbert's boat supplying oysters and prawns for sale, there's something for everyone!

Dates for boat owners and their guests to enjoy this carefree "get away from it all" events are :

Sail Port Stephens

In a challenging economic climate, it's exciting to see a start up business grow 160% in 12 months with 64 yachts competing this year in the second Sail Port Stephens.

Strategically positioned in the last week of NSW school holidays, Sail Port Stephens 2009 attracted yachts from as far north as Brisbane and as far south as Wollongong, with associated crew and visitors flying direct into Newcastle Airport from Melbourne, the Gold Coast, Brisbane, Adelaide and Perth.

The regatta featured a cruisey start to the week with the Commodores Cup, before the pace and size of the fleet stepped up with the Yachting NSW IRC Championships, the Port Stephens Trophy and the Melges 24 Nationals.

The course was plotted out across the Port Stephens Marine Park, designed to take in the beauty and spectacular landscape of the Bay and surrounding islands just offshore. The social program was also embraced with gusto.

The dates for the 2010 Sail Port Stephens are April 12-18, with plans for it to be bigger and better, with the message from the organisers being a simple one

Sail and Play with us in 1010 ... the best is yet to come!

Soldiers Point Marina is very much looking forward to involvement in next year's event.
